

Young Professionals Network

Helping You Grow Professionally

The Greater Raleigh Chamber of Commerce created the Young Professionals Network as an educational and networking resource to help young professionals in the Greater Raleigh area develop their careers and community involvement.

How the Young Professionals Network works

The Chamber's Young Professionals Network provides events every other month designed to engage young professionals, ages 25-39, of member firms and help them become more competitive in the business arena, establish a web of business contacts through networking, and grow both personally and professionally through a variety of program topics.

Events

- ~ Learning from Leaders forums include panel discussions with seasoned professionals from our business community
- ~ One half-day program that features a nationally recognized speaker with breakout sessions focusing on individual and professional development
- ~ Unique networking events geared specifically for members of the Young Professionals Network

Past Speakers

- ~ Capitol Broadcasting Co., Inc. President/CEO James Goodmon
- ~ Coldwell Banker Commercial TradeMark Properties President Billie Redmond
- ~ First Citizens Bank Triangle Executive Christine Young
- ~ Greene Resources, Inc. President Gary Greene
- ~ Greater Raleigh Chamber of Commerce President/CEO Harvey Schmitt
- ~ The News & Observer President/Publisher Orage Quarles III
- ~ Progress Energy Vice President-Northern Region Hilda Pinnix Ragland
- ~ Raleigh Mayor Charles Meeker
- ~ Saint Augustine's College President Dr. Diane Boardley Suber
- ~ V. K. Fields & Co. CEO Valerie Fields
- ~ The York Companies Chairman Smedes York
